My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I Cannot put an End to this Session of Parliament without returning you My most sincere and cordial Thanks for the Assiduity and Zeal with which you have applied yourselves to the important Objects which have required your Attention, and for the Wisdom and Firmness which you have manifested in the new and difficult Emergencies for which you have had to provide.

I must particularly express the just Sense I entertain of the salutary and effectual Provisions which you made for strengthening the Means of National Defence, and the Measures adopted for obviating the Inconveniencies which were to be apprehended to Credit from the temporary Suspension of Payments in Cash by the Bank; as well as of the Promptitude, Vigour, and Effect, with which you afforded Me your Assistance and Support in suppressing the daring and treasonable Mutiny which broke out in a Part of My Fleet, and in counteracting so dangerous and pernicious an Example.

I have the Satisfaction to acquaint you, that since the Accession of the present Emperor of Russia, the Commercial Engagements between the Two Countries have been renewed in such a Manner as will, I doubt not, materially conduce to their mutual Interests.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I must return you My particular Thanks for the liberal and extensive Provision which you have made for the various Exigencies of the Public Service; and, while I lament the Necessity which increased them to so large an Amount, it is a Consolation to Me to observe the Attention you employed in distributing the heavy Burdens which they occasioned, in such a Manner as to render their Pressure as little severe as possible to My People.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Issue of the important Negotiation in which I am engaged is yet uncertain: But, whatever may be the Event, nothing will have been wanting, on My Part, to bring it to a successful Termination on such Conditions as may be consistent with the Security, Honour, and essential Interests of My Dominions. In the mean Time, nothing can so much tend to forward the Attainment of Peace as the Continuance of that Zeal, Exertion, and Public Spirit, of which My Subjects have given such conspicuous and honourable Proofs, and of which the Perseverance and Firmness of Parliament has afforded them so striking an Example.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's Command, said;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, That this Parliament be prorogued to Thursday the Fifth Day of October next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday the Fifth Day of October next.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of July, 1797,

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

I Have the Pleasure to acquaint you for their Lordships Information, that the Grand Ance, is acknowledged to be saved by a spirited and well-timed Attack made by Captain Ricketts, of His Majesty's Ship La Magicienne, upon the Enemy's Transports of Provisions and Ammunition in Carcasse Bay, for the Particulars of which I beg Leave to refer you to a Copy of Captain Ricketts's Letter.

You will also receive herewith a Copy of a Letter from Captain Mends, of His Majesty's Brig Diligence, together with a List of Armed Vessels taken by the Squadron since my Letter of the 27th of April.

La Magicienne, in Carcasse Bay, St. Domingo, April 24, 1797.

S I R,

I Beg Leave to inform you, that on Sunday the 23d Instant, when doubling Cape Tiberoon, in Company with the Regulus and Fortune Schooner, we discovered a Six-Gun Privateer Sloop and Four Schooners at Anchor in this Bay, which convinced me that the Port of Trois was attacked: Soon after the Alarm Gun was fired at the Fort. As no Time was to be lost in endeavouring to counteract the Views of the Enemy, we stood in and anchored, when we commenced a heavy Cannonade, and had the good Fortune, in a short Time, to drive them into the Mountains; their Field Pieces, Ammunition, Provisions, and Vessels laden with Necessaries for carrying on the Siege, fell into our Hands.

The good Conduct of every Officer and Sailor belonging to our little Squadron, manifested itself upon this Occasion, as well as upon many others, since I have had the Honor to command it. I have to regret the Loss of Four Men killed, and Mr. Morgan, Master's Mate, and Ten Men wounded (though not mortally), who were in the Magicienne's Boat when endeavouring to tow out the Privateer.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

S I R,

I Beg Leave to inform you, that having cleared the Bahama Straits the 3d of this Month, the following Day, Ten Leagues S. W. of the Pan of Motonzas, we fell in with and took, after an Action of three Quarters of an Hour, La Nativetas, of Sixteen Guns and Fifty Men, about Five Hundred Tons, laden with Logwood, had left the Havannah that Morning for Cadiz. I have the Pleasure of testifying the best Conduct of my Officers and People in this little Affair, and have no Doubt but they will distinguish themselves when any Occasion offers, and am happy to add we had only one Man slightly wounded.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c. &c.

S I R,

PLEASE to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's Ship Santa Margarita is returned, and has brought in L'Adour, a fine new French Ship out of Bayonne, carrying Sixteen Guns and One Hundred and Forty-seven Men, being the second Privateer she has taken during her late Cruise.

Inclosed is Captain Parker's Letter to me, giving a further Account of her, for the Information of their Lordships.

Santa Margarita, Cork Harbour, July 13, 1797.

S I R,

I Have to inform you, that on the 10th Instant, Cape Clear bearing N. E. by E. Eight Leagues, I captured L'Adour French Ship Privateer, belonging to Bayonne, pierced for Twenty Guns, mounting 16 Nine and Six Pounders, and One Hundred and Forty-seven Men; she had been on the Coast Ten Days, and has taken the Betty, from Newfoundland, bound to Bristol, and sent her to Bayonne.

It is very fortunate the above Ship is taken, as she must have done great Damage to the Trade, being a very fast Sailer, but Two Months launched, well found, and compleatly victualled and stored for a Three Months Cruise.

I am, &c.

They further desire that all such Claims may not only state in what Manner the several Cases come within the Description of the said Article, but also, specially set forth the Nature of the Evidence by which the Claimants respectively undertake to substantiate the same.

EXTRACT FROM THE SAID ARTICLE.

"Whereas it is alledged by divers British Merchants and others, His Majesty's Subjects, that Debts to a considerable Amount, which were bona fide contracted before the Peace, still remain owing to them by Citizens or Inhabitants of the United States; and that, by the Operation of various lawful Impediments since the Peace, not only the full Recovery of the said Debts has been delayed, but also the Value and Security thereof have been in several Instances impaired and lessened; so that, by the ordinary Course of judicial Proceedings, the British Creditors cannot now obtain and actually have and receive full and adequate Compensation for the Losses and Damages which they have thereby sustained: It is agreed that in all such Cases, where full Compensation for such Losses and Damages cannot, for whatever Reason, be actually obtained, had and received by the said Creditors, in the ordinary Course of Justice, the United States will make full and complete Compensation for the same to the said Creditors; but it is distinctly understood that this Provision is to extend to such Losses only as have been occasioned by the lawful Impediments aforesaid, and is not to extend to Losses occasioned by such Insolvency of the Debtors, or other Causes, as would equally have operated to produce such Loss, if the said Impediments had not existed; nor to such Losses or Damages as have been occasioned by the manifest Delay or Negligence, or wilful Omission of the Claimant."
